The Church Law Society, resident in Prague, is an association founded in 1994 linked to the Faculty of Law of the Charles University in Prague, with the purpose to assist in study and research in the fields of church law, religion law, legal history of churches and related subjects. In addition to the reviewed scientific journal Church Law Review (Revue církevního práva), published since 1995, we began to publish specialized church and religion law book series (Knižnice církevního a konfesního práva) in 2016.

We would like to offer you the second volume, published in October 2018: Die Rechtsstellung der Kirchen und Religionsgesellschaften in Tschechien (The Legal Status of Churches and Religious Societies in the Czech Republic, 208 p., ISBN 978-80-906501-1-4) by Associate Professor Stanislav Přibyl from the Faculty of Theology of the University of South Bohemia in České Budějovice.

The second volume of the series, written in German, presents a historical overview of churches in the Czech lands at first. Attention is paid to the transformation of the legal status of churches between the period of the totalitarian regime and liberal democratic state. Subsequently, it discusses the current legal status and various forms of activity of churches in public space. It describes how it happened that there are forty state-recognized churches and religious societies. Finally, the book deals with current property settlement between the state and churches in the Czech Republic.

If you are interested in the book, let us know the billing information and the postal address to which we should send the second volume of our book series. The price is 15 €, including the shipping and packaging costs. You may transfer the amount to our Euro account which accepts SEPA payments.

Visit our website http://spcp.prf.cuni.cz